

Theo Boshoff

Trends in the Agribusiness Sector: Challenges and Opportunities

Theo is the Chief Executive Office of the Agricultural Business Chamber (Agbiz), a membership organisation that represents over 100 leading agribusinesses and associations in the South African food, fibre and beverage value chain. He is a specialist in policy advocacy for the agricultural and agribusiness sector. He has a legal background and has primarily been involved with tracking and influencing legal and policy developments in the areas of land reform, labour, trade, agricultural and environmental law and negotiating public-private partnerships.

Theo holds several leadership positions including;

- Business convenor at Nedlac's Trade and Industry Chamber;
- Chairman of BUSA's Economic Policy Committee (Econpol);
- AgriBEE Charter Council member; and
- Board member of the Agricultural Development Agency (AGDA)

Academic qualifications

Post Graduate Diploma in Business Management

North West University
(2021 to 2023)

Masters in Law (2018-2019)

North West University
Constitutional property law cum laude

Masters in Philosophy

University of Pretoria (2013 – 2014)
Mphil, Wildlife Management

Bachelor's Degree

University of Pretoria (2009 - 2013)
Law, LLB cum laude