

JANSE RABIE

Testing the Temperature: Environmental Governance and Agriculture 2025

Head of Natural Resources AgriSA

Janse Rabie is Head of AgriSA's Natural Resources Centre of Excellence. He is seasoned attorney who, prior to joining AgriSA in 2017 practised as a specialist environmental lawyer in the private and government sectors, both in South Africa and abroad. Amongst others, he holds a master's degree in marine and environmental law from the University of Cape Town. He is a regular commentator on various environmental and water-related matters with a particular focus on the agricultural sector. He is based in Cape Town.