

PROF NICK VINK

Thinking About the Future for Dummies: The Case of South African Agriculture

---

Nick Vink is Emeritus Professor in the Department of Agricultural Economics at Stellenbosch University. Prior to that he taught at the University of the North (Limpopo) and then moved to the Development Bank of Southern Africa where he managed a wide portfolio of research and public policy analysis. He has served as President of the South African (1991-1993), African (2010-2013) and International Associations of Agricultural Economists (2018-2021). His main research interests include agricultural development on the African continent, land and agrarian reform in South Africa, agricultural policy, and wine economics. He currently serves as an independent, non-executive director on the board of Rooibos, Ltd. and was a member of the Board of the South African Reserve Bank (206-2025).